Engine Capital, L.P., together with the other participants named herein (collectively, “Engine”), intends to make a preliminary filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission of a proxy statement and an accompanying proxy card to be used to solicit votes for the election of a slate of director nominees at the upcoming 2016 annual meeting of stockholders of MYR Group Inc., a Delaware corporation.

On January 7, 2016, Engine issued the following press release:

Engine Nominates a Slate of Highly Qualified Director Candidates for Election at MYR Group’s 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Reiterates Belief that MYR Group is Significantly Undervalued and that the Board Should Immediately Commence a Process to Explore All Strategic Alternatives to Maximize Shareholder Value

Reveals a Slate of Three Highly Qualified, Independent Candidates with Significant Relevant Industry and Financial Expertise to Revitalize and Improve MYR Group’s Board

NEW YORK, January 7, 2016 - Engine Capital, L.P. (together with its affiliates, “Engine”), one of the largest shareholders of MYR Group Inc. (“MYRG” or the “Company”), with ownership of approximately 4.6% of MYRG’s outstanding shares, today announced it has delivered a formal nomination of three highly qualified director candidates, Arnaud Ajdler, Grant G. McCullagh and John P. Schauerman, for election to the board of directors of MYRG (the “Board”) at the Company’s upcoming 2016 annual meeting of shareholders.

Arnaud Ajdler, managing member of Engine, stated: “Last month, we publicly shared our serious concerns with the poor performance of MYRG. Since going public in the summer of 2008 more than seven years ago, under the stewardship of CEO and Chairman Bill Koertner, the Company has invested $260 million<sup>1</sup> in capital expenditures, which represents close to 70% of the current enterprise value of the Company. The Board has also approved significant compensation programs for MYRG’s management team<sup>2</sup> (partially through stock-based incentive compensation that we believe has resulted in shareholder dilution). During that time period, through the execution of this strategy, MYRG shares have appreciated at a dismal Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 2.4%<sup>3</sup>. We believe that maintaining the status quo by pursuing the same strategy will likely result in the same dismal performance and is not the best path forward. As discussed in our December 8, 2015 public letter to the Board, we believe the Board needs to immediately commence a process to explore all strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value, including engaging in a price discovery process to determine the true value of the Company. MYRG is a valuable franchise and we believe our director candidates have the relevant industry and financial expertise to revitalize the Board and take the necessary steps to enhance shareholder value at the Company.”

Engine’s nominees are:

Arnaud Ajdler is the Managing Member of Engine Capital Management, LLC, which serves as the investment manager to value-oriented special situations funds that invest both actively and passively in companies undergoing change. Prior to founding Engine in March 2013, Mr. Ajdler served as a Managing Director of Crescendo Partners L.P., a principal investment firm, from December 2005 to February 2013. Mr. Ajdler has served as a director of Destination Maternity Corporation, the world’s largest designer and retailer of maternity apparel, since March 2008, and as Non-Executive Chairman of its board of directors since February 2011. He has also served as a director and on the audit committee of Invescor Restaurant Group, Inc., a Canadian franchisor of restaurant concepts, since July 2013, as a director and on the compensation and nominating and corporate governance committees of Stewart Information Services Corporation, a company that provides title insurance and real estate services worldwide, since May 2014, and as a director of StarTek, Inc., a provider of business process outsourcing services, since May 2015. Mr. Ajdler is also an Adjunct Professor at Columbia University Business School where he teaches a course in Value Investing. He also previously served as a director and chair of the corporate governance and nominating committee of Charming Shoppes, Inc., an apparel retailer, from 2008 until the company was acquired in June 2012, and as a director and on the compensation and human resources committee of O’Charley’s Inc., a multi-concept restaurant company, from March 2012 until the company was acquired in April 2012. Since its inception in June 2006 and until its combination with Primoris Services Corporation in July 2008, Mr. Ajdler served as a member of the board of directors and as the Secretary of Rhapsody Acquisition Corp., an OTC Bulletin Board-listed blank check company formed to effect a business combination with an operating business. From June 2004 until June 2006, Mr. Ajdler served as the Chief Financial Officer, a director and the Secretary of Arpeggio Acquisition Corporation, a specified purpose acquisition company (“Arpeggio”). Arpeggio completed its business combination with Hill International, Inc., a worldwide construction consulting firm, in June 2006, and until June 2009, Mr. Ajdler served as a director of the surviving company, a NYSE listed company. From August 2006 until the company was acquired in October 2007, Mr. Ajdler served as a director of The Topps Company, Inc., a company that provides baseball, football, hockey, entertainment, and pop culture products.

<sup>2</sup> In particular, Bill Koertner, the Company’s Chairman and CEO, has earned more than $13 million in total compensation during this time period. Information obtained from the Company’s proxy statements.

<sup>3</sup> CAGR calculated using the closing price of $16.25 on August 12, 2008, the first trading day of MYRG and $19.40, the closing price on December 7, 2015, the day before Engine publicly released its letter to the Board urging the Company to initiate a strategic review process.
